

DYCE

Sweet, sugary and oh so scrumptious, if dessert is your thing then DYCE is definitely your thing. From bubble tea to brownie sundaes, there is something for everyone at this ice-cream parlour-slash-creation station.

But DYCE is so much more than just dessert. For a holistic sweet-sperience, the décor reinvents the melting ice-cream vibe with a highly instagrammable pink interior. Comfy seats and sumptuous treats will have you wanting to stay all day – but we don't recommend doing that, because it's nice to share.

If you're someone that likes to keep things a little different, DYCE has got you covered. Their build-your-own collection gives you total control over the details, so you can spend as long choosing your toppings as you will choosing your filter (don't worry, we won't tell).

But this is not your basic build-your-own. As well as the usual suspects, DYCE offers quirky extras like a Baklava base and Macaroon toppings! Like we said, this is the place to be for anyone wanting something truly remarkable.

Whatever you choose, from the extra-extra to the extra-vanilla, your dessert will be personalised to your taste, and look so good you almost won't want to take a bite. Almost.

Proudly placed between Mayfair and Marylebone, if you happen upon DYCE, you'll be hard set not to pop inside. From first dates to babysitting duties, spontaneous shopping trips to long-awaited reunions, there's always room for dessert.

Whatever your style or choices, DYCE has the perfect dessert. Vegan, gluten-free, no problem! The whole point of this dessert bar is that it offers the best for everyone...except maybe those with an aversion to flavour.

True to their inclusive and supportive values, DYCE's own Instagram proudly portrays their patrons' creations. So, go create! Who knows, maybe you'll even make it onto their highlights reel.
